

Code of Conduct and Ethics Policy

Purpose

1. The purpose of this Code is to ensure a safe and positive environment (within the Organization's programs, activities, and events) by making Individuals aware that there is an expectation, at all times, of appropriate behaviour consistent with the Organization's core values. The Organization supports equal opportunity, prohibits discriminatory practices, and is committed to providing an environment in which all individuals are treated with respect and fairness.

Definitions

2. The following terms have these meanings in this Policy:
 - a. "Organization" – refers to Cheer Manitoba.
 - b. "Individuals" – All categories of membership defined in the Organization bylaws, as well as all Individuals employed by, or engaged in activities with, the Organization including, but not limited to, athletes, parents/guardians, coaches, judges, volunteers, managers, administrators, committee members, directors, club owners and their employees and board members.
 - c. "Workplace" - Any place where business or work/sport-related activities are conducted. Workplaces include but are not limited to, the Organization's office, work-related social functions, work assignments outside the Organization's offices including gymnasiums, work-related travel, and work-related conferences or training sessions.

Application of this Code

3. This Code applies to Individuals' conduct during the Organization's business, activities, and events including, but not limited to, competitions, practices, tryouts, training camps, travel associated with the Organization's activities, the Organization's office environment, and any meetings.
4. An Individual who violates this Code may be subject to sanctions pursuant to the Organization's Discipline and Complaints Policy. In addition to facing possible sanction pursuant to the Organization's Discipline and Complaints Policy, an Individual who violates this Code during a competition may be ejected from the competition or the training area, or site, official may delay the competition until the Individual complies with the ejection, and the Individual may be subject to any additional discipline associated with the particular competition.
5. An employee of the Organization found to have engaged in acts of violence or harassment against any other employee, worker, contractor, member, customer, supplier, client or other third party during business hours, or at any Organization event, will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action subject to the terms of the employee's Employment Agreement.

6. This Code also applies to Individuals' conduct outside of the Organization's business, activities, and events when such conduct adversely affects relationships within the Organization (and its work and sport environment) and are detrimental to the image and reputation of the Organization. Such applicability will be determined by the Organization at its sole discretion.

Responsibilities

7. Individuals have a responsibility to:
 - a. Maintain and enhance the dignity and self-esteem of the Organization members and other individuals by:
 - i. Demonstrating respect to individuals regardless of body type, physical characteristics, athletic ability, age, ancestry, colour, race, citizenship, ethnic origin, place of origin, creed, disability, family status, marital status, gender identity, gender expression, sex, and sexual orientation
